U.S. Secretary of Labor, Hilda Solis, Maria Hinojosa, Dolores Huerta, and others discussed how to improve the safety of Latino workers in America. More information on this summit can be found at <http://www.osha.gov/latinosummit/2010latino-summit.html>

- NEW PARTNERS

- The Austin Chapter of Associated General Contractors in Austin, Texas
- The AGC of Wisconsin, in Madison, Wisconsin
- The Rio Grande Valley Chapter of Associated General Contractors in Harlingen, Texas
- Welcome to Mylon Stark, new Director of Safety and Training with our partner AGC of South Dakota! Welcome aboard, Mylon!

- We appreciate our AGC Partners!

- NEW FRIENDS

Thank you to our new friends, David Nelson and Adam Gerson, OSHA, who have been very helpful in providing information for safety and learning English to business owners in the USA. More information can be found at <https://www.osha.gov/>

- CONTINUING EFFORTS

- Our programs are now being used in over 21 countries.
- We continue to support faith-based organizations who teach English in the communities where they serve.
- Development ideas are on the table and we continue to approach new industries.

We appreciate those who are supportive and grateful for our work – thank you very much!
